

The import of the following is prohibited:

- a) Seeds, plants, vegetable origin production or any other production subject to quarantine which are infected by quarantine objects;
- b) Pathogen agents of plants, cultures of live mushrooms, bacteria, viruses, as well as insects, arachnids and nematodes, which deteriorate the plants, excepting the samples brought in for scientific purposes with the permission of the General Inspectorate of Phytosanitary Supervision and Seeds Control;
- c) Soils, rooted live plants and their underground parts, extracted with the soil;
- d) Seeds and planting material in postal packages, hand luggage or in any other luggage of passengers, cruise and staff working on ships, planes and other means of transport.